

Living Fearless

featuring Wendie Lloyd

Join the STAC Women's Collective over breakfast for an inspiring session presented by featured speaker Wendie Lloyd.

Living fearless doesn't mean you never experience fear: it means you embrace fear and let it become energy to propel you forward. We will discuss aspects of being a fearless female including being connected with other healthy women, setting limits and boundaries with yourself and others and also discuss some of the obstacles presented to us in today's societal climate.

With thanks to session sponsor Aplomb Strategies.

Complimentary to STAC Members and registered Mid-Winter Meeting attendees
